Pam is a certified public accountant and has more than twenty years of experience in the practice of public accounting. As a senior assurance manager, Mrs. Baker provides audit and accounting services for clients in the financial industry, which includes consumer finance companies, financial institutions, buy here pay here companies, pawn shops, title loans, and the payday advance industry. In addition, she has served clients in the data servicing industry, rental purchase industry and various manufacturing businesses.

Pam has been involved with start-up companies in the payday advance industry, one of which grew to over 500 stores before the sale of the company. In addition, she was involved in developing the reporting standards associated with this industry, and has prepared information for initial public offerings.

Pam graduated from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, with Honors, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Tennessee Society of Certified Public Accountants, and a number of other professional and civic associations.
