Brent A. McDade is Managing Director of Decosimo Advisory Services, the business valuation and litigation support practice of Joseph Decosimo and Company, PLLC.

Prior to joining Decosimo, Mr. McDade was the leader of the controversy services group for one of the largest business valuation firms in the country. His business valuation experience includes the appraisal of equity securities, debt instruments, and derivatives. He has provided valuation services related to mergers and acquisitions, buy-sell agreements, fairness opinions, Employee Stock Ownership Plans, estate and gift tax matters, shareholder disputes, and marital dissolutions.

He has served as an expert witness in disputes regarding business valuation and economic damages in federal and state courts, and he is a frequent speaker on business valuation topics to groups of business owners and their advisors. His client list includes public and private companies ranging in size from local mom-and-pop operations to multi-national conglomerates.

He graduated cum laude from Vanderbilt University with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. He has earned the Accredited Senior Appraiser designation from the American Society of Appraisers (ASA), as well as the Certified Business Appraiser (CBA) and Business Valuator Accredited for Litigation (BVAL) credentials of the Institute of Business Appraisers.
