Kathy has 24 years experience in public accounting with 20 years specifically in the tax services area. She joined the firm in 2003 to assist the tax practice in the Cincinnati office after 19 years of experience with other regional and local accounting firms. Her tax consulting experience includes comprehensive corporate, S-corporation, partnership, nonprofit entity and individual research and planning, review and compliance, and representation before the Internal Revenue Service, as well as other state and local tax authorities.

Kathy is responsible for the administration and organization of the Cincinnati office, its policies and procedures that have been developed for recruiting professional staff, professional development, assigning staff to engagements, and other quality control matters. Ensuring exceptional service to our clients is her primary responsibility.

Kathy is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Kentucky Society of Certified Public Accountants. Kathy is currently a Cabinet member of the Cincinnati BizWomen, and a member of the Tocqueville Society, where she is active with the Women and Leadership Committee, a Fine Arts Fund Business volunteer and a member of the Cincinnati Chamber Subcommittee for State and Local Tax Issues. She has served as the State Taxation Committee Chair of the Ohio Society of CPAs and is a past member of the Executive Board of Directors of the OSCP.
