Cole has eighteen years of experience providing financial services, serving as advisor in merger, acquisition and divestiture proceedings, and providing services relating to assurance, reimbursement, feasibility studies, contract negotiations, strategic planning, litigation support, due diligence, and regulatory compliance for many types of healthcare organizations.

Prior to joining Decosimo, Cole held leadership positions in national and regional accounting firms. Multi- and single location clients served include for-profit and not-for-profit hospitals, nursing homes, hospices, home health agencies, physical therapy and rehab organizations, psychiatric providers, physician organizations, assisted living facilities, HUD-financed housing properties, payors, application service providers, and provider management companies in various states.

Cole earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Auburn University. He received his CPA designation in 1987 and is licensed in Tennessee and Georgia. He is a member of the Georgia Society of CPAs and the Health Care Compliance Association, and is a Fellow of the Healthcare Financial Management Association.

Cole has written articles for Healthcare Financial Management, for whom he has been a technical article reviewer, and the Georgia Scroll. He has completed presentations on financial topics for the Georgia Hospital Association, the Georgia chapter of the Healthcare Financial Management Association, Chattanooga State, Mercer University, the Tennessee chapter of the Healthcare Financial Management Association, and a Healthcare Executive Invitation Forum.
