

Specific Expertise, Specialized Resources

Decosimo is a leading provider of audit and tax services to not-for-profit organizations throughout the Southeast. From professional associations to private schools and civic organizations, Decosimo possesses the knowledge and resources specific to this unique type of organization.

More than 70 not-for-profit organizations trust Decosimo to provide the highest quality professional services at a competitive cost. Since 1971, we have served more not-for-profits than any other firm in the region.

Ranging in size from one to 140 million dollars in assets, these organizations have recognized the value of choosing a CPA firm that shares their values, has a tremendous depth of resources and is committed to the personal attention they desire.

Decosimo has developed a highly skilled team of professionals whose sole focus is not-for-profit organizations. These individuals possess specific training in conducting yellow book and A-133 audits and in providing innovative tax solutions.

In addition, our professionals attend conferences and CPE seminars each year to ensure they possess the most up-to-date information concerning rules and regulations governing not-for-profits.

Decosimo is a member of the AICPA's Government Audit Quality Center. Governmental audits are very diverse and include all audits and attestation engagements performed under Government Auditing Standards of federal, state, or local governments; not-for-profit organizations; and certain for-profit organizations.

Decosimo is a leading provider of audit (yellow book, A-133) and tax services for not-for-profit organizations, including:

- Professional associations
- Private schools
- Civic organizations
- Community service organizations
- Health care
- Health advocacy groups
- Government agencies

This firm-based Membership Center is designed to help CPAs meet the challenges of performing quality audits in this unique and complex area. Member firms must meet stringent requirements set by the AICPA and designate firm resources responsible for the audit of governmental and not-for-profit audits.
